THE ORIGINS OF HOMEOPATHY

Homeopathy means ‘same-suffering’ and is a system of medicine named 200 years ago by a German medical doctor who was tired of seeing the side-effects of substances ingested as medicines.

The substance that started his inquiry into the bad effects of concentrated substances on the human condition was Quinine. It was used for Malaria and could help get back to Chinchona Bark from the Rubiaceae family of plants (the same family as coffee) that was and is still used to make quinine. As he began chewing it, he realized – as if the poison that can cure you of the problem, can also create the problem. So, he realized why using it would help – yet in large doses it poisoned. By creating an imbalance, to induce a release of kinetic energy or resonance, this doctor was able to rediscover the fundamental laws of nature, one being that if something can kill you, chance the same cyanide in bamboo is what keeps the Panda alive and well. But it is not taken in concentrated doses, or in isolated doses, it is taken in the dose the Earth processes nature as wild creatures.

As civilized creatures, it is through dilution and specifically, through the homeopathic process of making our remedies, that we go back to being healthy. It is through Earth's processing of substances as our only guide. Homeopathy touches on a part of this process that reminds us to be careful of the chemical pure form of a substance and not have the chemical form in it. Tea is a diluted form which is naturopathic, while, a homeopathic medicine is like a snowflake that has captured the code and when it

Validation for addresses

Validation system for addresses/postal codes information - internationally.

Mobile/Desktop Optimizations

Further optimize mobile & desktop. Especially on the social platform - spacing is god awful in places like Groups and other spots around the platform. And why are things so different when looking at a smaller screen vs a wider screen?...

Work on photo display both on front-end for Remport profiles and front-end Materia profiles. Try slideshow.

Sharing/Displaying Resources on Materia Faction

Resources are everything on the social platform. We need to be able to share them on posts and make them visible when looking at other people's profiles.

Still can't embed Youtube videos or links in general without error

If I write something before the link in a post, it gets an error and doesn't embed. It will only work if I don't write anything on the post and just post the link. This needs a fix.

Cancel Membership on Remport settings is on top?!

Cancel Membership should be at the very bottom of settings - not the first thing you see on settings,
